IN THE WOMAN'S WORLD

SKIRTS; HOW THE STYLES HAVE CHANGED IN AMERICA

slim garments and return to the full who, because of fashion's decree, intions, but surely the skirt that flapped pression of opinion. People laugh in the wind and that made balloons when she takes a sideways jump to

A recent item in the San Francisco not nearly so comfortable as the one Chronicle calls attention to the fact that has not enough material in it to that the clubwomen in Chicago have do this. A slender girl or a woman declared war upon the tube skirt, with a girlish figure appears more These women think that crime would graceful in the narrow dress than in be lessened if the women give up the the wide one, but the stout woman ones. This may be true, for no doubt sists upon wearing an extra slim gown these women have studied the condi- sometimes calls forth a different exevery time one turned the corner was reach the sidewalk and when she steps

MISS CROCKER AND MISS PARKER NOTABLE BRIDES OF THE MONTH

Two helresses in one month leav- and one-fourth is a operpetual gift to ing San Francisco to bestow hand and be expended in public welfare, educafortune on men from other parts tional and philanthropic advancement, might occasion the impertinent inquir- the remainder being kept for herself. er to ask what our own young men Many women of wealth occasionally think of it. But they are so accustom- make similar gifts out of the fortunes ed to seeing our heiresses going else- left them on their death, but few are lines, and the manikens paraded about audience sat tight. where to live as soon as they come so large-hearted that they will share in the most elaborate costumes, but into their fortunes that perhaps the their fortunes during their lifetime. subject elicits no comment from them whatever, says an exchange.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Crocker and Malcolm Douglas Whitman it sugar and pineapple plantations and plates from Paris indicate that more brought men and women to the city from many parts of the country and from many parts of the country and grazing lands cover another large extenses the narrow lines are preserved; bumptious Mr. Bumpus, the Golden offer a comedy entitled "The Triflers," from England. It was one of the hand- tent of island land and here tens of indeed, they seem more narrow than Eeadle, very effectively. Miss Nellie guaranteed fully up to the standard of somest weddings in years and smart, thousands of heads of cattle roam they did a season ago. The jump from McNamara as Mrs. Bumpus pleased set society was thoroughly represent over meadows and hills. This will all the full to the narrow skirt was in- with "Caller Herrin," and pretty Eva be Miss Thelma Parker, who, although to her from her grandmother, through a peacock's tail. Only two years ago tuneful "Mikado" will make amends a Honolulu girl, spent many years of her father. Her grandmother was a when the co-eds were fashionable the for anything in which the "Golden her school days here and in Europe Lative Hawaiian related to the reign bottom of the skirt measured a deal Beadle" is lacking. and really made her debut here last ing family. etles of the sub-debutante set. It was will have all of those who live on her is remarkable. The tiny waist has planned to have a gala coming out lands, all of those whose families disappeared, with the result that woparty this winter, when the young lady neighbored with her own, share in the men look much more substantial and took matters into her own hands by merriment of her wedding festivities normal and much stronger. The long, becoming engaged while en route There is something allinclusive in graceful lines that give a woman from this city to Honolulu last spring, the hospitality of the island, a spirit height (and not breadth) are appreci-Her marriage to Henry Gaillard of sincere neighborliness which makes ated both by those who are naturally Smart of Virginia will take place on Miss Parker's wedding will be mark-Perhaps the isolation creates a oneed by the same genial, generous spirit tamily reeling of unity. as that which characterized the celebration when she became of age last March. Her generosity makes Miss a thousand and there will be a week Parker unique among the heiresses of of merriment, with dancing, music and America. When Miss Parker came in feasts. It is to be celebrated after t) her fortune on her eighteenth birth. the Hawaiian style and it will likely day, she organized a t ust company to the last of its kind. through her family's attorney, dividing her fortune in such a way that it in Honolulu which is being prepared could not be touched during her life- for their occupancy. They were build-

One-fourth of her income was given and this will probably be their home 65, SHE SWIMS to her mother, Mrs. Frederick Knight, during their visit here next winter.

JORDAN'S

Lace and

EmbroiderySale

Now Going On

evitable result following on an island.

At any rate, the wedding feast will provide for the entertainment of over

Miss Parker has acquired a house

ing another home in San Francisco crinolines were worn? They look ridiculous to us, and the women seem awkward in the hoop skirts that sway from side to side, propelled by the swinging of the metal cage beneath them. No doubt you have smiled, too, at the pictures taken some years later when bustles were in vogue. Perhaps on some rainy day you have found stored away in an old trunk an old family album and while looking over the ancient tintypes have laughed at the audience of last night. the odd styles prevailing in the gowns that your great-great-grandmother and those before her wore. Have you ever thought how dreadfully shocked they ones that those dear old people wore. In England, about a year ago, the modiste tried to bring back the crinointo the street car. The athletic girl seems to be uncomfortable in the tube skirt and no doubt she it, for the steps almost mannish carriage that she has acquired have to be cast aside in the new gown. There is a happy medium and here in Honolulu the narrow dresses have been carried to the extheme only by the few who "go in for all the fads." The tube was probably designed for the slender girls and women who are neither athletic nor

Have you ever watched a motion picture of the Civil War days when Miss Parker's fortune truly a posses- yes, even four-years ago, the trains How to Kiss."

more than two yards. Like a sovereign ruler, Miss Parker The complete change in the figure every one genially disposed toward slender and by her larger sister, and everyone else. Perhaps it is the in by the petite maiden who "would give anything in the world" if she could grow an inch or two. Physicians say that the improvement in health of many women in the leisure class is due to the fact that they give their bodies more freedom.

If those who have decided to make a raid on the tube skirt succeed in accomplishing what they want to accomplish, let us hope that they will not force us to wear very full skirts, for they are neither becoming nor easily managed.

NEARLY FIVE MILES

Is Mother of Ten Children and Daughter Swims with

NEW YORK, June 25 .- Gray haired sixty-five years old, mother of ten chil dren, Mrs. Elizabeth Berlo of Edge water, N. J., swam along and across the Hudson yesterday from Edgewater to Washington Bathing Club at the foot of One Hundred and Fifty-second street. When she and her eighteen year-old daughter Kitty, who accompanied her, had completed their fourand a half-mile swim in forty five minutes, she was forcibly restrained from trying to make the return trip as she had come.

Every one of Mrs. Berlo's nine boys and one girl has won cups at swimming carnivals as the result of her teaching. She herself saved three live; when a member of the Boston Volunteer Life Saving Corps.

Capt. Smith took out his trusty motor boat Lady Bettle yesterday and jammed it to the gunwales with Edgewater. A few curls of gray hair float ed beneath Mrs. Berlo's cap. Trim in a black bathing suit, she stood beside her daughter. Simultaneously they dived.

The tide was against them, but using the Australian crawl stroke, the two women made sure headway rgainst it. The mother was in her element. The years rolled off her as smoothly as did the water from her firm white arm as it slowly rose and fell over her head. She was a mermaid in a shimmering green sea, and the song she sang was of an Irish heroine. Mis Kitty didn't approve. are the best things in footwear. She was not old enough to feel so young, and between puffs she colled: "Be quiet, mother. Don't you know you've just got to save your breath?" As a just punishment, mother increased her stroke and neared the bat ing club 100 yards in advance of her daughter. When they reached the clubhouse, fifty young men attempted to carry them from the water, Mrs. Berlo would have none of it. "Let me alone," said she, clinging to refrigerator are put to a test and its the float. "I'm going to swim back. Why, I feel as strong as when I started. This is nothing; I can do it every You need not experiment with our day of the week. And such fun! The such a pleasant swim. Do you think I've almost lived in it since I was fourteen for nothing?" Mrs. Berlo was finally dissuaded and took a seat in the motorboat, while her daughter made the return trip in the water, in considerably better time. But once more upon land Mrs. Berlo began to make preparations for a repetition in the afternoon and it was crily when Miss Kitty began to cry charmingly illustrated by tableaux, as-

The blackface stunt by Mr. Teal is pleasant feature and adds a spice

The Raymond Teal Comedy Company

Honolulu, and so long as they hand out the same class of clean, healthy, laugh-manufacturing sketches it will have no trouble keeping the Liberty

Besides the "College Days" feature

there are a number of motion picture films shown that are most entertaincither, but the Liberty's regular first-come-best-seats prices of 10c, 20c and Honolulans who are fond of moving pictures are missing a good deal if they neglect to take in the cozy little Empire theater, which is nightly showing the best line of films that has been put on the screen in this city.

The projection in the Empire is so

The summer sessions of Columbia

D. D. D. Prescription

BENSON, SMITH & CO., LTD.

AMUSEMENTS.

Independent Theater

And see the very latest and up-to-date PHOTO PLAYS. Better than the

A Wartime Romance (Drama)

The Gambler (Western Drama) .

NEWER THAN THE NEWEST IN

HONOLULU

Prices, 10c and 15c

Two Performances-7:30 and 9

Management of Hen Wise

Announcement

Concert

By the

Kamehameha

Glee Club

1912, 8 P. M.

ADMISSION, 75 CENTS

Ernest Kaai's Club will furnish

Music for

P. HALL, SATURDAY, AUG. 3,

A Jealous Husband (Comedy)

so-called first-run pictures.

in Maoriland (Travelogue)

Eczema

AT THE EMPIRE

sisted by electric light effects.

Theater filled to the doors.

what has been shown so far.

PICTURE EVENINGS

of variety to the whole.

she has long been practising and the in skirts as well as in anything else,

Changing the program, the mem- "College Days" at the Liberty The-Lers of the Pollard Opera Company ater is positively the best entertainappeared last night at the Bijou in ment feature that has come to Hothe "Golden Beadle," which had its nolulu in a long time. What makes it origin in Australia and should never the best entertainment feature is the ave left there. Had it not been for fact that there is not a silly line or the excellency of the company and the word spoken, while it is a laugh from fact that the scenic effects were real- end to end. It is the real stuff that ly good, the "Golden Beadle" would one expects from behind the footlights, have fallen flat.

True, the opera has an English set. that hit Honolulu. exception of three or four songs, it "Songs My Mother Used to Sing" was 2660. failed to win any appreciation from particularly appreciated, as it is most

There were several electric effects in which the chorus appeared to advantage, and the finale, evidently intended to "knock 'em" took the form would be if they could only take a of a police officer dragging a singer peep into the streets of Honolulu? up the aisle and out of the house. Styles go in cycles, and perhaps we This scene was very realistic and it shall some day be wearing the same had been feared that the audience in mistaken zeal might attempt to interfere between the counterfeit minion of the law and his victim, but the

Despite the piotless, witless play. the people were not easily persuaded the Pollards really provided a fair Miss Parker's fortune consists, like and the poor creator of English modes entertainment. The dancing as usual Mrs. Malcolm Whitman's, mostly in was defeated. With the majority the was clever and several of the songs land. The Parker plantation covers rationally narrow skirts are popular, were up to form; notably "Lady Like" miles and miles of territory, some of and although some of the fashion as sung by Queenie Williams, and ed in the 200 or 300 guests attending increase in value in time, making deed sudden, for only nine or ten- Pollard scored a hit with "Teach Me

The next heiress to be married will sion a princess might envy. It came on the evening gowns spread out like Next week the presentation of the

MISS EDITH CLARK NOW MRS. GUSTAV BIORKMAN

Miss Edith Clark became Mrs. Gustav short that every detail of the pictures Biorkman yesterday afternoon at the is most clearly placed, and there is Colonial hotel where the ceremony was none of that disagreeable flutter and EVENING PRICES..... 10c, 15c, 25 performed in the garden beneath an flicker that is so trying on the eyes. arbor of white asters and lilles. The For a pleasant "picture evening", service was read by the Rev. Leopold, take in the Empire. It is always run-Kroll of St. Andrew's Cathedral and ning. was witnessed by the intimate friends of the bride and groom. Mrs. Biorkman is the daughter of and New York universities have lar-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Plain- ger enrollments than ever. field, New Jersey and came here last February to attend the Mid-Winter Carnival when she met the bride Carnival when she met the bride ident of Honolulu for over two years. He has a bungalow in Lower Manoa Valley where he and his wife will make their home.

We have sold many other remedies for skin trouble but none that we could per-sonally guarantee as we do the D. D. D. Prescription. If I had Eczema I'd use Mrs. J. P. Howard, who has one of the largest bee ranches in Wisconsin. at Norton, was nealry stung to death. She is in a critical condition.

that she disisted. So delighted is she with her experience she declares that both she and her daughter will go to Australia, the land of swimmers, and They Just Keep On challenge all comers.

Every Walk-Over wearer is a Walk-Over booster. Everybody boosts a good thing—and

Walk-Over Shoes

Jacobson Bros., HOTEL, NEAR FORT STREET

Sachs for Dry Goods

Wireless

YOUR MESSAGES-RATES

ARE LOW

(Management of R. Kipling)

MUSICAL COMEDY TONIGHT

Golden Beadle

Pollard Juvenile Opera Co.

SPARKLING MUSIC NEW SCENERY

but seldom gets from the "companies" Evening Prices. . 15c, 30c; Reserved, 50c ting and therefore may appeal to The singing is good, and the chorus Sat. Matinee 10c, 20c; Reserved 30c British ears and humor, but with the of girls has never been equaled here. Bijou Box Office open daily. Phone

BEST SHOW IN TOWN

MONDAY: THE MIKADO

has certainly hit the right stride for

Motion Pictures

CHANGED THRICE A WEEK TONIGHT

THE DEATH OF NELSON By Special Request A Counterfelt Roll The Missing Bracelet

Two Men and a Girl One Flag at Last

AUGUST 7: TOM BURROWS Champion club swinger of world will hibitor. swing them day and night for eighty

MATINEES DAILY MATINEE PRICES 150 and 20c

Trophy

For Young Men

A new high-toe, military heel, Button Boot and Ox-ford. A member of the CROSSETT FAMILY. Comes in Patent Colt, Dull Calf and Tan Russia Calf, both high and low.

The newest last in the Crossett factory and correct for this season.

Our Price - $5

When you want the styles a little ahead, come

Manufacturers' Shoe Co., Ltd.,

1051 FORT STREET

IF YOU WISH TO ADVERTISE IN

NEWSPAPERS

Anywhere at Anytime, Call On or

E. C. DRAKE'S ADVERTISING AGENCY 124 Sansome Street San Francisco

Everything in the printing line at Star-Bulletin, Alakea street; branch, Merchant street.

Teal's

Replete with COMEDY SITUATIONS

ahead of any other local picture

Baseball for Sunday AUGUST 4

1:30-P. A. C. VS. HAWAHS 3:30-J. A. C. VS. STARS

Reserved Seats for center of gran stand and wings can be booked at 1 O. Hall & Son's Sporting Dep (entrance King street) up to 1 p. m.; after 1 p. m., at M. A. Gunst & Co., King and Fort.

Good Natches

> Cheap For Cash

Wm. Prucha

The Expert Watchmaker 1128 FORT STREET

Special Sale Children's

Ribbed Hose 15c pair

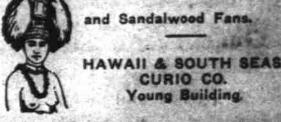

Colors-Black and Tan SALE BEGINS MONDAY, JULY 15

EHLER'S

Blackshear Millinery Shop

Fort Street, Near Beretania Has an entire new line of Hats and Trimmings just from the Eastern murkets. Drop in and see them.

Beautiful Carved lvery nd Sandalwood Fans.

Prices $8.75, $13.5

Permanent Satisfaction

Kings of Ice Savers

It is now refrigerator weather-exactly the time when the qualities of a worth thoroughly appreciated.

line; others have done this. Take their water is gorgeous, and I never had decision, which is that we win on superiority in every particular.

OWN A GURNEY MODEL OR JEWEL AND FEEL HAPPY-YOU HAVE THE BEST

& DIMONID

$13.50, Etc., to $150

53-57 KING STREET

Refrigerators of